Dathliad Blasus ar gyfer Dydd Gŵyl Dewi

Er bod y dathliadau eleni yn wahanol, oherwydd y cyfyngiadau coronafeirws, mae Gwasanaethau Addysg a Phlant Sir Ddinbych, mewn partneriaeth â Gwasanaeth Prydau Ysgol Sir Ddinbych, wedi trefnu her goginio gyffrous ar gyfer plant, pobl Ifanc a'u teuluoedd ar y we ar gyfer Dydd Gŵyl Dewi, pryd gallant ddangos eu sgiliau a'u hangerdd dros goginio drwy ddefnyddio cynhwysion sy'n lleol ac iach.

Gan ddefnyddio eu dychymyg a'u gwybodaeth am fwyd/cynnyrch Cymreig a lleol, gofynnwyd i'r plant greu dysgl yr oeddent yn meddwl y byddai Dewi Sant yn mwynhau ei bwyta - melys neu sawrus.

Dywedodd y beirniad cystadleuaeth, Jane Jones, Cogyddes Ysgolion, Ysgol Twm o'r Nant, Dinbych a Chogydd Cymru y Flwyddyn 2020, "Cawsom ystod drawiadol o geisiadau yn cynrychioli safon ardderchog o waith ac ymdrech. Roedd yr holl brydau a grëwyd gan y plant yn edrych yn wych, gan ddangos defnydd gwych o gynhwysion. Rwy'n edrych ymlaen at roi cynnig ar y ryseitiau hyn yn yr ysgol ac gartref!"

Mae'r ryseitiau buddugol wedi'u cyhoeddi ar wefan Cyfoethogi Cwricwlwm Sir Ddinbych - www.denbighshireenrichment.com - i bawb eu mwynhau.

A Tasty Celebration for St David's Day

Although this year's St David's Day celebrations were different, due to the coronavirus restrictions, Denbighshire Education and Children's Services, in partnership with Denbighshire School Meals Service, organised an exciting St David's Day themed cooking challenge for children, young people and their families, when they could demonstrate their skills and their passion for cooking by using ingredients that are local and healthy.

Using their imagination and their knowledge of Welsh and local food/produce, children were asked to create a dish they thought St David would enjoy eating - sweet or savoury.

Competition judge, Jane Jones, School Cook at Ysgol Twm o'r Nant, Denbigh and Wales Cook of the Year 2020, said, "We received an impressive range of entries representing an excellent standard of work and effort. All the dishes created by the children looked terrific, showing great use of ingredients. I'm looking forward to trying these recipes at school and at home!"

The winning recipes have been published on the Denbighshire Curriculum Enrichment website - www.denbighshireenrichment.com - for everyone to enjoy.
