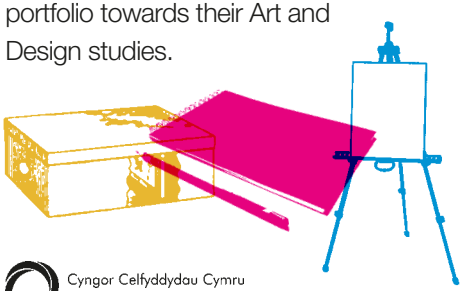
What is Portfolio?

Portfolio is a course of development workshops for young artists and designers aged 14 – 18 who have a have a particular interest within the visual arts; the workshops are all based at Ruthin Craft Centre. During these sessions the Portfolio artists/ makers will share their expertise, introduce new techniques and discuss the participants work and ideas in supporting the development of their own personal portfolio towards their Art and Design studies.



Cyngor Celfyddydau Cymru
Arts Council of Wales

We allow up to 10 – 15 student on to each workshop. Booking is essential for each workshop

The programme has been partly funded by Art Council of Wales and there will be a fee for each session which varies from £13.00 – £15.00.

(Please contact us if there are any difficulties with payment)

The Portfolio workshops take place out of school hours, mainly during the school holidays.

The programme Includes:

Slow light – Pinhole photography Workshop
We will offer a one day photography workshop during October 2016 half-term which will offer the understanding of the basis of photography; how light, subject and composition effects the work and the chemical process of darkroom printing.

Sketchbook and Portfolio Development Workshop
We will offer a one day sketchbook and portfolio development workshop during the Easter 2017 holiday, which will offer practical advice on the preparation and presentation of an individualised portfolio/sketchbook for your GCSE's / AS/A level assessments or for applications to universities or colleges.

Summer Art School Workshops
There will be 4 two-day workshops with four different Portfolio artists during August 2017. During these sessions young people will gain practical experience to develop their artistic practice and portfolios of work.
